

TEACHER EDUCATION IN THE 80's and 90's

4th INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR FOR TEACHER EDUCATION

THE SEMINAR PROGRAMME
April 13 to 19, 1984

TEACHER EDUCATION IN THE 80s & 90s
4TH INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON TEACHER EDUCATION

April 13 to 19 1984, Digby Stuart College, Roehampton, Surrey

PROGRAMME

Friday, April 13:

AM Arrival of early participants.

14.00 to 17.00 - arrival of bulk of participants

18.00 Sherry reception

18.30 Seminar Welcome Dinner with guests and speech of welcome by Peter Toyne - Deputy Director of North East London Polytechnic

19.30 Introductory Addresses: 'Trends in Teacher Education' Colin
Mably, North East London Polytechnic

'Priorities in Teacher Education' Janet Powney, North East
London Polytechnic

20.30 International Groups - first meeting, introductions and discussion of major issues in teacher education from group members perspectives.

21.30 Social get-together in the bar with informal music

Saturday, April 14th:

08.30 Breakfast

09.30 Paper Group Meetings - introductions and scheduling of each group's papers for remaining paper sessions.

10.30 Coffee

11.00 Keynote Address 'Teachers as Citizens: Political Education and the Preparation of Teachers' Ken Osborne, University of Manitoba, Canada

12.00 International Groups - second meeting with discussion of issues raised in keynote address and consideration of remit of the group for further sessions.

13.00 Lunch

- 14.00 The future of TE80/90? Report from George Churukian - Illinois Wesleyan University on responses to his questionnaire to past-participants on the future development of the seminar.
- 13.00 Free Association time for paper reading and other ad-hoc activity
- 18.30 Dinner
- 19.30 Paper Groups - presentations and discussions of first scheduled papers.
- 21.30 Social Activity - featuring 'New Games' with Jill Head and John Miller - a chance to participate and enjoy in this new approach to fun interaction (casual clothes advised) - Bar and music.

Sunday, April 15th:

- 08.30 Breakfast
- 09.30 Paper Groups - presentations and discussions of further papers.
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.30 Teacher Education Systems - reports by LeOra Cordis, University of Regina, Canada and Jan Waijer, University of Groningen, Netherlands on the results of their respective studies.
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Excursion - a guided coach tour of London taking in all major places and buildings of historic and cultural interest - followed by free time in the centre of London to visit what you want to visit.
- 18.15 Rendezvous at Westminster Bridge Pier at 18.15 (do not be late!) and climb aboard the good ship Suerita for a three-hour cruise on the Thames taking in all the riverside sights from Greenwich to Putney with a guide commentary. Buffet dinner will be on board and the ship has a fully stocked cash bar.
- 21.30 Coach pick-up at Putney Pier and return to College - quiet informal social activity in bar.

Monday, April 16th:

- 08.30 Breakfast

- 9.30 Keynote Address 'Problems in Developing Teacher Education'
Maria Feldens, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil.
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 International Groups
- 12.30 Lunch
- 14.00 Paper Groups - Presentations and discussions of further papers.
- 15.30 Tea/biscuits
- 16.00 Paper Groups - Presentations and discussions of further papers.
- 18.30 Dinner
- 19.30 Unscheduled Time for ad-hoc social/cultural activity.

Tuesday, April 17

- 08.30 Breakfast
- 09.30 Keynote Address - 'Information and Research Priorities in INSET in the Socialist Countries' Svatopluk Petracek, Director, European Information Centre for the Further Education of Teachers, Charles University, Prague, Czechoslovakia.
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 International Groups
- 12.00 Unscheduled time for ad-hoc presentations/demonstrations
- 13.00 Excursion - By coach to Windsor (packed lunch provided)
- 18.30 Dinner
- 19.30 Paper Groups - Further paper presentations and discussions
- 21.30 Country Dancing with NELP associates Band and 'caller' presented by Olive Stubbs - a chance to engage in an English tradition which goes back for centuries (casual clothes advised) - Bar etc.

Wednesday, April 16

- 08.30 Breakfast
- 09.30 Paper Groups - Final meeting of group and review leading to group report.
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 Final meeting of International Discussion Groups
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Plenary Discussion - on the future of The International Seminar for Teacher Education. Summary of International Group discussions and proposals for action.
- 15.30 Unscheduled Time for ad-hoc activities
(maybe practice for the evening's jollifications - or time to have that last minute discussion etc.)
- 18.00 Seminar Celebration Dinner
- 19.30 International Seminar Follies - a self-generated concert of amazing acts, songs, performances and humour, where anyone who can do anything is invited to do it! Followed by dancing and general frivolity - Not to be Missed!

Thursday, April 19

- 09.00 Breakfast
- 10.00 Final meeting about the future of The International Seminar for Teacher Education - Decisions
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.30 Plenary Session - Evaluation of the Seminar
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Seminar Close - Departure

Note: This programme may be slightly adjusted if circumstances for change arise.