As we prepare to enter the third decade of the 21st century, educators find themselves at critical crossroads in their attempts to deliver quality education. As an international society, we challenge ourselves to question how we will engage in the future of education in light of increased globalization, transformations, and advancing technologies. We invite multiple perspectives and voices in order to develop and promote global understandings and collegial relationships, support social justice and equity, and advance the profession.

DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

January 30, 2019: www.isfte2019.com

The International Society for Teacher Education (ISfTE) is dedicated to the worldwide improvement of teacher education through the promotion of discussion and critical analysis, as well as the dissemination of evidence-based scholarship and innovative practice. As part of the Annual Seminar, participants are assigned to small groups for paper presentations that encourage constructive dialogue of contemporary issues in teacher education. Participants also engage in educational and cultural experiences intended to promote understanding of the educational environment of the host country.
